South Rise Primary School

Weekly Newsletter

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a great week at South Rise. Charlton Athletic came to school yesterday with their team mascot to promote the team's work in the local community. As part of this, children from across the school took part in a sponsored run completing laps around the playground. Part of the money raised will go towards supporting the PE provision at the school – we will let you know next week how much was raised.

Today our Year 3 children were part of a fantastic opportunity. The photographer and Oscar/Turner prize winner Steve McQueen is producing an installation which will go on display at the Tate Modern Gallery. He plans to take a school picture of every Year three school child in London to represent his London heritage and up-bringing. As part of this, our Year 3 children had their photographs taken today and the school will be invited along to the gallery to view the final piece. This is a very exciting project to be part of.

Have a lovely weekend,
